CASSIUS SMITH MAY RECOVER

Rush County Man Who Murders
Father-in-Law and Turns Weapon
on Himself—Has Chance

SHOOTING NEAR NEW AGUSTA

Relatives Go to Bedside as Soon as
News Reaches Here—Result of
Family Quarrel

After killing his father-in-law, Marcellus Hollingsworth, at their home near New Augusta, Marion county, last night and attempting to commit suicide, Cassius C. Smith, a Rush county man who left here about four years ago, today had prospects of recovery.

The shooting was reported to be the result of a family quarrel. It took place at the Hollingsworth home where Smith and his wife resided one-half mile north of New Augusta. Hollingsworth, who was fifty-eight years old, died within thirty minutes after he was shot.

Smith turned the revolver on himself soon after he had mortally wounded his father-in-law and shot himself in the right cheek. It was believed that the bullet entered his brain, but this was later disproved.

Smith, who is thirty years old, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Smith, living near what is known as Porter's saw mill on rural route nine a few miles north of the city. He was employed as a conductor on the Indianapolis & Cincinnati traction line a few years before he went to Indianapolis, where he has been working on the Union traction line.

Smith is a brother of Mrs. Frank Cross, living a short distance north of Rushville; of Charles Smith, who lives on the Frank Sample farm north of here; of Miss Laura Smith, of Indianapolis, and of the Misses Mollie and Hazel Smith who are at home.

Frank Cross and Charles Smith went to Indianapolis last night just as soon as news of the shooting reached here. Mr. Smith, the father, is in very poor health and relatives today feared to tell him of the murder.

The shooting is said to be the result of a family feud of more than a year's stand, according to the Indianapolis Star. Smith married Hollingsworth's daughter more than two years ago, and the young couple had lived with Hollingsworth since the death of Mrs. Hollingsworth in 1913.

It is said that Smith and Hollingsworth had quarreled at frequent intervals for several months, and that Mrs. Smith had been dragged into the quarrels by her husband and her father. Smith was in Indianapolis yesterday on business and he returned home about 6 o'clock.

After the shooting he asserted that he heard Hollingsworth quarreling with Mrs. Smith as he entered the house, and he immediately went to the kitchen and shot Hollingsworth.

He fired two bullets. One entered Hollingsworth's left temple and the other struck him in the right eye.

The shooting was done with a revolver, which it is said Smith carried with him part of the time. Mrs. Smith ran from the house and went to the home of neighbors, who called Dr. W. C. MacDonald and Dr. Geo. P. Coble. Dr. E. S. Knox, deputy coroner, investigated the shooting and notified Sheriff George V. Coffin.

Bernard Laughlin is moving from Raleigh to a farm near Mays.

Tanpah Haymakers 1923 will have work on a candidate Monday evening before the box supper.

SPRING SEEMS TO RUSH SEASON

Showing Winter Unceremoniously
Out But a Very Stubborn Resistance May be Expected.

GREEN SPRIGS SHOWING UP

Robbins Grow Bold and Sing Out
Loud Without Fear of Getting
Their Names in the Paper.

Persons who, perchance, might be searching for spring today would not have to go far to be rewarded. It was everywhere. The mercury, aided and abetted by the sun, soared up to near sixty degrees. Green sprigs of grass are beginning to peep up through the dead grayish comfort that covers the earth and the robins grew bold and sang out loud because they no longer have fear of having their names in the paper.

The crowd in the city today was augmented by many farmers and their wives. Even higher temperature is predicted for tomorrow, with cloudy skies and possibly a little rain.

It is not with very much regret that most persons see winter depart, even though it may "linger a little in the lap of spring." Last summer time was when there was a longing for the frosty air of the winter season but that longing has disappeared. Rush county has had quite enough cold weather for one winter and the voting is unanimous for spring to enter, although it is generally agreed that winter will not retreat without putting up a stubborn resistance—and when the backward movement does finally begin, the announcement is expected that it was for "strategical purposes."

Spring activities are already manifesting themselves. One of the most conclusive proofs that spring is soon to come is the display of seeds which is found at many of the stores. The time of the year is close at hand when attention will be given to arranging for the gardens.

GRAND JURY DOES NOT INDICT BROWN

Returns Ignoramus Against Accused
Man After Investigation of Alleged Theft of $180.

EVIDENCE CIRCUMSTANTIAL

The grand jury failed to indict Omer Brown, held on a grand larceny charge in connection with the mysterious disappearance of $180 belonging to Martin Kelley, a local blacksmith, and he was released from jail this morning. The affidavit on which Brown was held in jail was dismissed by Prosecutor Stevens when the grand jury failed to find enough evidence against Brown to warrant an indictment.

The evidence against Brown was entirely circumstantial and there was no direct evidence that the money he spent freely was that belonging to Kelley. The grand jury rather than indict him on this kind of evidence with no show of obtaining a conviction voted to return an ignoramus in the case.

No more indictments were returned by the grand jury and adjournment was taken. No time was set for the next meeting and the jury will be held subject to call.

ESTATE GIVEN $1,000 VERDICT

Jury Holds Signature Assigning Insurance Policy to L. C. Lambert Not Milton Wagner's

LAMBERT DECLARED IT WAS

Judgment Similar to That in Case of Sexton Estate Administrator
vs. William Frame.

The jury hearing the case of James V. Young, administrator of the estate of the late Milton Wagner against Louis C. Lambert, returned a verdict for the plaintiff awarding Mr. Young judgment for $1,000, the amount of the insurance policy involved in the case.

The jury was out a little over one hour and the finding was a surprise to most of those interested in the case as it was not generally believed that judgment would be for this large sum. Lambert alleged that Wagner, when he died was indebted to him and that he held the assignment to the life insurance policy. The assignment was introduced in evidence.

The plaintiff maintained the signature to the assignment turning the policy over to Lambert was not that of the late Mr. Wagner and this contention was sustained by the jury in making the finding as one of the interrogatories submitted contained this question and the jury answered that Wagner did not sign the assignment.

The evidence in the case was completed yesterday afternoon and the closing argument was made this morning. The case went to the jury about eleven o'clock. Several witnesses testified that the signature to the assignment, which involved the turning of the insurance policy over to Lambert, was not that of Wagner's, while Lambert, Harry McMillin and Charles Newkirk testified that Wagner did sign the paper.

This is the second case this week in which signatures have been involved and in both instances the findings have been that the signatures were not those of the person alleged to have made them. The first case was that of the Gates Sexton estate against William Frame on a note. The court held that the signature to the note was not that of Mr. Frame and that the plaintiff was not entitled to recover. In the case decided today the jury virtually decided that the signature was that of someone else rather than the late Mr. Wagner.

SENATE PASSES SUFFRAGE BILL

Upper Branch of Legislature Springs
Surprise by Making it Party
Measure After Caucus.

JUST 3 VOTES AGAINST IT

If it Becomes Law, Women May
Vote For All Officials Not Created by Constitution.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 19.—The Indiana senate today passed, 37 to 3 the limited woman's suffrage measure giving women the right to vote for all offices not mentioned in the state constitution. The bill was made a Democratic party measure and the action was taken after a party caucus.

The bill goes to the house where it probably will be passed. Governor Ralston has said that he will sign the bill.

Those voting against the bill were Senators Kinder and Reser, Republicans, and Zearing, Democrat.

Prior to the caucus action several Democratic leaders had expressed doubt whether the supreme court would hold the law constitutional. Today nothing was said on that point when the bill came up.

The Maston bill which is modeled after the Illinois law, would give women the right to vote for presidential electors, judges of the appellate court, chief of the bureau of statistics, reporter of the supreme court, attorney general, judges of superior, criminal, probate and juvenile courts, county councils, township trustees, township advisory boards, township assessors, officers of cities and towns, officers of the school boards elected by the people, and all other offices not provided for in the constitution of Indiana, and those offices which have been or may be created by the legislature. It would give women the right to vote on all questions submitted to the voters except constitutional amendment. It would give them the right to vote in local option elections.

The bill has been promoted by the Legislative council of Indiana women. It became known that the organization forces decided at the last moment in party caucus to take this action after the house by unanimous Democratic vote passed the state-wide primary measure which had been defeated in the senate. A plan earlier formulated to tack to the suffrage bill a referendum clause was abandoned.

The action today was beyond the hopes entertained by the most ardent suffragist when the session opened. Such a bill was not thought of. The plan to introduce the bill was announced exclusively by United Press newspapers January 25.

"The feeling in the caucus was that we should do something to get the support of the progressive element," said a Democrat.

"The recent adoption by the senate of the Stotsenberg suffrage amendment which retained the present provision limiting suffrage to male voters does not effect the bill passed today. The Stotsenberg amendment applies only to constitutional office and the bill passed today applies only to offices not mentioned in the constitution.

W. A. Woollen, who has been seriously ill at his home in North Harrison street, is slowly improving.

A son has been born to the wife of Peter Demmer in Connorsville. Mr. and Mrs. Demmer were formerly residents of this city.

Government Officials Consider United

THREE NOTES ARE RECEIVED

England Announces Wilhelmina
Placed in Prize Court—Reply to
Flag Zone Order

Washington, Feb. 20.—The state department today received the official text of the German war zone reply, the English flag zone reply and the English provision placing the steamer Wilhelmina in prize court.

Government officials today considered America deeper than ever in the tangle of international difficulties.

The government intends to stand firm in insisting that Germany not harm American commerce or lives in the death zone around the British Isles, according to official intimation today. The official view was that the nation can pursue no other course than to insist on its rights.

One of the highest government officials admitted real danger lies in the fact that the United States may become involved in the argument between the two nations.

The Cabinet discussed with the president yesterday afternoon the dangers to American vessels and commerce growing out of the reiterated determination of the German government to wage a warfare of submarines and mines on enemy vessels, disclaiming all responsibility for what might happen to neutral vessels, venturing into the new sea zones of war.

Canvass of Cabinet officers later disclosed that the administration regarded the developments of the last few days as of grave importance. Members of the cabinet declined to predict what would be the course of the United States.

Some pointed out that in every serious situation in international affairs much discretion was vested in the President and that his action would necessarily be guided by the

TAKEN ON CHARGE OF WIFE DESERTION

William Ricketts, Formerly of This County, Arrested Near Harts-
ville and Returned Here.

COMPROMISE SEEMS LIKELY

William Ricketts, formerly of this county, was arrested yesterday in Bartholomew county and brought here today by Mathew T. Shaw, sheriff of that county, to face a charge of wife desertion filed by his wife, May Ricketts. He was arrested on an affidavit. When arraigned before Judge Sparks the affidavit was found to be faulty in that no date was mentioned for the alleged offense. Judge Sparks sustained the motion to quash on this grounds and another affidavit was filed.

An effort was being made this afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Ricketts to compromise the case and it was expected that the case would be dropped. Ricketts was arrested near Hartsville. They formerly lived in North Vernon and he is alleged to have deserted her while they were residents there.

GREAT FAIR IS OPENED TODAY

Panama-Pacific Exposition Starts

European War so Far Has Failed to

Race on for Monday

(By United Press.)

San Francisco, Feb. 20.—The greatest of world fairs, the Panama-Pacific exposition, opened today, without formal ceremonies other than a vast pageant of San Franciscans to the grounds this morning. Thousands of visitors saw the pageant.

All San Francisco was astir by 7 a. m. today and with the greatest outpouring of people in the city's history the international exposition was opened. Franklin K. Lane Secretary of the Interior, was the official representative of President Wilson. The president himself gave the word for throwing open the gates. His voice was carried over a 3,000 mile telephone circuit.

The Panama-Pacific International Exposition represents an expenditure of $50,000,000. The critical judgment of experts pronounced it's eleven main exhibit buildings, its five courts, 250 pieces of statuary, mural paintings and lighting effects one of the most magnificent ensembles of buildings and grounds ever achieved.

An enormous part of the outlay is represented in the "zone," the amusement street of the Fair.

The exhibit palaces include a total area of 2,663,183 square feet. Sixty thousand exhibitors will fill this space the promoters of the Fair declaring that the exhibits will cover the arts, industries and resources of the entire world summarize the achievements of human history.

Not only will the Exposition be remarkable in its exhibits showing but in its special events, congresses and conventions, spectacles and pageants. The Department of congresses has listed between 400 and 500 national and international organizations which will hold their meetings or conventions here. It is estimated that an average of six conventions will be held every day during the life of the exposition which will last until December 4.

To house these meetings the city and exposition management have recently completed constructions of a permanent auditorium downtown, which cost $2,000,000 inside the grounds another auditorium has been erected, and Leland Stanford University at Palo Alto and the University of California at Berkeley have thrown open their auditoriums.

For the past month the general public has been excluded from the Newspaper advertising not only makes people think—but it makes them think of your product, your store, your service.

It makes your name or trade mark come to mind when there is a want to be supplied.

$3000.00 FIRE PREVENTED

The House the Red Jacket Saved

Read This Letter:

"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect.

Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

and flower beds in the city and the sowing of fields on the farm. Practically all the dealers who handle seeds have already received their supplies and have given them a prominent place in their stores. With the farmers spring is the beginning of the busy season and as soon as the weather is favorable for plowing, work on the farm will continue without interruption until late fall.

Early spring is the annual clean-up time. Whether or not a general "clean-up" day is observed here this year the great majority of lawns, back yards and alleys will be given attention. Each winter a large amount of trash and rubbish accumulates, despite the care of the average housewife and must be hauled away to keep the premises in a first-class condition. Last year the general clean-up campaign was very successful and many loads of trash and ashes were hauled away by the city teams.

Any story concerning approach of spring would not be complete without mention of the popular game of marbles which is indulged in at this time of the year. Small boys are seen walking home from school with their pocket bulging out with the "profits" of the day, and others who have been less successful wondering how they are going to get another start for tomorrow. Whether or not it is gambling to play "keeps" that game is conceded to be the most popular. The tell tale circles on the concrete sidewalks and streets show where the lads have been playing and indicate the popularity of the game. Dealers report that there is a good demand for marbles of all sizes and kinds and that the youth of Rushville is spending his money for them.

Spring like any other new season means additional work for the merchants as the winter stocks of goods must be replaced with those that are seasonable. Already spring lines are being displayed in the show windows and there are many demands for the newest styles. In a few days the merchants expect the spring trade to start in earnest, especially if the weather is at all favorable. Dealers in all lines are receiving their new goods and will soon have their stocks complete.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggy, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one remedial disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

circumstances of each case if any attacks on American vessels occurred.

In the informal discussion of the German war zone reply, as published in the newspapers, members of the cabinet indicated that they were impressed by different aspects of the case. Some took the view that while the situation was serious, there was an indication in the German note of a willingness to negotiate and discuss the subject further, which might, perhaps, postpone the active enforcement of the proclamation sufficiently long to permit an understanding to be reached about the safety of neutral vessels and their identification on the high seas.

The fact that Germany has emphasized in the reply the orders to its navy to use discretion and care when approaching ships flying neutral flags was viewed as indicating that the maximum of vigilance probably would be exercised by the commanders of submarines to distinguish between enemy and neutral vessels. On the other hand, however the portion of the note in which Germany disclaimed all responsibility for what might happen to neutral ships either by submarine torpedoes or mines produced a feeling of apprehension among some high officials that a critical point might be precipitated in the relations between the United States and Germany.

Opinion varied as to what steps would be taken by the United States when the text of the German reply is officially received. Some contended that inasmuch as the United States had informed Germany that the latter would be held "to a strict accountability" for any attacks on American vessels and lives, the interests of the American government might be conserved now by standing unalterably on that warning and awaiting developments.

Women Bending Every Effort to Bring Pressure to Bear in Favor of Their Suffrage Bill.

PETITION BEING SENT IN

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 20.—Women suffragists all over the state are bending every effort to show the members of the legislature that the people of the state favor the Maston-Rule suffrage bill which is now before both houses of the legislature. The bill has passed second reading in the house and is in the hands of the senate committee.

The women are not at this time trying to have the bills advanced, but are sending out telegrams and letters into every county requesting friends of the cause to ask their senators and representatives to vote for the bill. The women also are asking for pledges from the legislators.

To Bluffton women belong the distinction of having sent in the first letter. Senator Rinear of Wells, Blackford and Grant introduced a resolution sent him by members of the Bluffton clubs. It was read in the senate.

Petrograd, Feb. 20.—The Russian general staff flatly accused the German and Austrian war offices of making false claims in their reports of sweeping victories and thousands of prisoners taken during the last ten days. The contrary was said to have been the case. While it was admitted that retreats had taken place from Bukovina and from east Prussia, it is asserted that there were orders for strategic reasons and that they were perfectly conducted and that the numerical losses were small.

Put on the Soft Pedal

It is time for the American laymen to put on the soft pedal, and let the president do the talking.

There is grave concern lest the United States become involved in the European war.

But it must not be—if mortal man and honorable means can prevent.

England seems determined to starve out Germany, even to the depriving of women and children of the necessary food to sustain life.

This may be in accordance with the rules of warfare, but it is not in accord with the laws of humanity. Helpless women and children!

Germany, in retaliation, says merchant ships must not enter English waters, and warns neutral countries that their vessels are in danger of being sunk by Teutonic submarines. Germany, apparently, would also starve England—including its innocent women and children!

This, too, may be considered a justifiable act of war, but the element of humanity is lacking—quite dead.

The United States is a neutral country, favoring neither side to the controversy, and with food in plenty for the hungry in all lands.

British merchant ships are using the American flag in an effort to escape the hostile craft of the enemy.

The kaiser instructs his submarine commanders to sink merchant vessels approaching the English coast, and warns America that its ships of commerce are in danger of being destroyed.

If either country, in pursuance of its announced policy, destroys an American ship sailing under the American flag than that act becomes one of war against the United States or of piracy on the high seas.

And therein lies the extreme gravity of the situation.

President Wilson and his advisors are straining every nerve in an effort to avoid the danger of a clash, and the people of this country can best assist them by refraining from partisan discussions of the war, and by retaining their native coolness and calmness in the face of danger. Hot headed denunciations and vitriolic discussions will only serve to aggravate an already delicate situation.

Let Europe fight its own battles. Our business is to attend strictly to our own affairs—and to furnish food for the starving millions when the inevitable time is at hand.

The president is speaking softly—but to the point—and he should not be embarrassed by the flames of racial strife.

Put on the soft pedal, brother—the soft pedal.

PEACE FORCES TO PLEAD WAR'S END

Emergency Federation Will Meet in Chicago in Effort to Secure Cessation of Hostilities.

QUESTIONS TO BE SOLVED

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Feb. 20.—To secure a cessation of hostilities, to ensure such terms of settlement as will prevent this war from being put the prelude to new wars, and to place the future peace of the world upon sounder foundations—these are the far reaching purposes of the Emergency Federation of Peace Forces, which will hold a gathering in Chicago on February 27 and 28.

In a call for this meeting, sent to all parts of the country, the following questions are asked:

What can America do to stop the war?

What shall be the terms of Peace? How shall a lasting peace be secured?

It is an endeavor to solve these questions, that the meeting which is to be a national congress of all persons interested in securing peace, and not only for members of the Emergency Federation alone, has been called. Nationally known speakers will address the gatherings.

The Emergency Federation of Peace Forces was organized in Chicago on Dec. 19, 1914. Among its sponsors are: James Adams, chairman of executive committee; Louise F. Lochner, secretary; Mrs. Bertram W. Sippy, treasurer; Margaret Haley, Florence Holbrook, John C. Kenedy, Graham Taylor, Martin D. Hardin, Jenkin Lloyd Jones, Mrs. Martin D. Schulze, Carl D. Thompson, Peter J. O'Callaghan, Raymond Robbins and Joseph Stolz.

BACHELORS AND CATS TO BE TAXED

Both Will Stand in Jeopardy in New Jersey if Two Bills Pending
Become Laws

PROVIDES FOR $50 ANNUALLY

(By United Press.)

Trenton, Feb. 20.—Bachelors and cats will stand in jeopardy if two bills pending in the present Legislature should receive favorable action by the solons. The former will be affected in a financial way, and the felines face extinction as a species in very short order if the measure is placed upon the statute books of New Jersey.

Assemblyman Ostron, Democrat, introduced the bachelor bill, which provides that all unmarried males over the age of 30 years shall pay an annual tax of $50, provided however, that they are earning at least $50 a week.

A Republican, O. H. Hammond, is responsible for the contemplated war on the cats.

He has put in a bill which calls for licensing at a $1 a head. The sponsor of the proposed law wants to eliminate the hundreds of stray animals that prey upon young game such as rabbits and birds.

Assemblyman Singer would establish a State Board of Barbers to

Don't Pass Up the Comforts and Pleasures of Life

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

State Boxing Commission Announces

PUTS CRIMP IN SMALL BOYS

Two Bouts at Present in Sight for Freddie Welsh—Takes on Ritchie
March 11

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Feb. 20.—Managers of the half hundred boxing clubs which have sprung up on the East Side and in Harlem were sore today. For the past year they have been holding their minor exhibitions two or three nights a week, and some of the promoters have blossomed forth in tailored togs where before a sweater and a pair of pants served all purposes. They made a few hundred dollars each season and had learned to spend it.

But now there is woe in their camps. The State Boxing commission has been collecting five percent of the gross receipts of every Gotham scrap of any importance, but the little fellows were overlooked. But the state athletic commission, the other day, announced it is going after the little clubs too, and that they will have to pay the tax arrears and all, if the receipts of previous bouts can be found, or close up.

"No more delay; we need the money," it is the commission's slogan.

There are two bouts in prospect for Freddie Welsh in the near future. Joe Shugrue, won the right to meet the lightweight champ. It is a little scrap by outpointing him in ten rounds at the Madison Square Garden, and efforts are being made to link the pair again as soon as possible. Whether Joe and the Britisher will get together before or after Welsh meets Willie Ritchie here March 11, remains to be seen.

Perhaps it won't be necessary for Shugrue to meet Freddie at all, for Ritchie bugs say he'll regain his title, if he does it'll be the two Americans for it.

EXHIBITION AGAIN TONIGHT

"Wizard" Shaw Will Repeat at Elks
Club This Evening

Lew Shaw, known as "Wizard" Shaw, who appeared at the Elks club last night, will play there again tonight. He will play one hundred or no count at billiards and fifteen balls or no count at pool against the best players of the Elks or in the city. The games will commence at 9:30 o'clock. "Wizard" Shaw made the balls do everything but talk last night. He played a three-ball billiard game of two hundred points, his first run in which was 95 in the third inning. In the fifth inning he got the balls together again and ran the remaining 105. He made one run of 115 at pool and wound up his exhibition by showing how fourteen balls could be made at one stroke.

RUSHVILLE WINS IN FINAL PERIOD

Fairview Put up Good Game But Locals Succeed in Pulling Out Ahead, 29 to 13.

CONNERSVILLE IS NEXT

The Rushville high school team added another victory to the long list last night when the Fairview team was defeated 29 to 13. The game the first half was very close and ended with the locals in the lead 11 to 9. In the last half Rushville gradually pulled away and proceeded to pile up the score.

Rushville was handicapped in the first half by using the ball brought here by Fairview. For some reason the ball appeared "dead" and it was impossible for the local forwards to dribble it and this slowed the team down considerably. The ball was changed in last half and Rushville walked away with the game. This is the first game this season that Fairview has lost and the game from a Rushville standpoint was no more than a practice contest.

The Connersville team will be the attraction here next Wednesday night and the locals are out for revenge and expect to slip over a big win.

GERMAN CLAIMS CONTRADICTED

French Say That Assertions Concerning Sweeping Victories Are Without Foundation.

THE RETREAT IS ADMITTED

(By United Press.)

Paris, Feb. 20.—Flat contradiction of the German claims of success in the north in the Argonne and in the Champagne districts came today from the war office. Reviewing the operations of the last ten days, it was stated that everywhere the developments have favored the allies. The German claims of sweeping victories are made deliberately and with the expectation that they will aid in influencing the Italian parliament now in session to continue the policy of neutrality, it is charged.

The weather conditions all along the battle line have been abominable but the allies have continued to make notable gains. Part of this is due to the superiority of the French artillery which is becoming more effective as the German artillery loses its power, it was stated.

QUESTION NOW UP TO THE SENATE

Recognized Leader of Upper Body

Says Today That it Will Pass

State-Wide Primary Bill.

OTHERS DIFFER WITH HIM

House Passes Measure Late Friday,

65 to 30, Evidently to Place

Higher-Body "In Hole."

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 20.—That John R. Jones state-wide primary bill will pass the senate if the recognized leader of the senate holds to the view and intention that he held today.

"The house will not play football with me any longer. I'll see that this primary bill passes the senate," he said.

When the senate Democrats went into their conference at 9:30 this morning it was generally understood that the action of the house yesterday in passing the Jones primary bill 65 to 30 would be the main subject discussed. What decision the majority would make was a debatable question, according to many of the Democrats.

Democrats who had not heard the leader's remark were "up in the air" over the action of the house. There was a feeling that the house Democrats were "passing the buck," and quite a number of senate members were free in saying so. With the senate having assumed the responsibility of killing direct primary measures, the house felt it could go ahead, live up to the letter of the primary pledge in the platform and leave it to the senate to use the axe, as one member expressed it.

The fact that the house Democrats voted unanimously for the primary and that all the leaders without exception said they voted thus because of the platform pledge, made it more difficult for the majority in the senate to kill the Jones bill, it was believed.

When asked what he thought the senate would do, Senator VanAnken, one of the leaders, said:

"We'll do the same thing to the Jones bill we did to the Rinear bill."

"Are you sure," he was asked.

"No, I'm not sure of anything except death and taxes," he said.

Senator Clarke, a moving spirit among the senate Democrats said:

"To be frank with you, my judgment is that the Jones bill will not pass the senate."

To pass the Jones bill, the senate majority will have to work without the aid of the senate Republicans. This was learned today on good authority. When the Rinear bill was killed, six of the seven Republican senators voted against the motion killing the bill, but they did this to force it to third reading. They will, it is said, vote nearly as a unite against the Jones bill under the theory that the primary is a Democratic platform measure, and if it becomes a law the Democrats should be responsible for it.

Should these six votes be lost it would be hard to overcome by the primary friends unless the leaders of the party swung into line behind the bill. Senator Neal has said that he voted with the majority to kill the Rinear bill, but that because of hoarseness his voice was not heard. Senator Jackson was not present, but has said he would have voted to kill the Rinear bill.

The vote against the Rinear bill was 23, with 21 for it. Add the votes of Neal and Jackson and the six Republicans, and the bill would be defeated unless the organization Democrats who have stood for a referendum should get behind the bill.

Exposition grounds while the last of the buildings were being finished and the exhibits were being put into place. When the gates were thrown open today, the big Fair was virtually complete. All of the larger buildings were finished and in permanent shape and only a few of the smaller buildings and concessions remained to be completed.

Of the 20 foreign buildings within the grounds all were finished by Jan. 1 excepting the pavilions of France, Italy, Siam, Portugal and Panama. The French building, a reproduction of the Palace of the Legion of Honor, was the last of the foreign buildings to start construction and it will be finished in a very few days. The following is a partial record of two years work the result of which is the big exposition of today.

San Francisco won the government's support for its exposition against determined opposition by southern congressmen who wanted to center the federal appropriation on a proposed exposition in New Orleans. The work of preparing for the exposition, which had been suspended pending this decision, then went forward with renewed energy. Ground was broken Jan. 1, 1913, on a stretch of sand covered with debris and old structures. More than 70 acres were reclaimed from San Francisco Bay. Six hundred and thirty acres of marsh land were converted into a veritable garden. Under the direction of the department of landscape gardening the former arid waste was made to bloom until today, when the fair opened until flowers were blossoming everywhere on the grounds.

The "zone" of the Exposition is to this fair what the midway "Piasance" was to Chicago and "The Pike" to St. Louis, having attracted amusement promoters from all parts of the United States and Europe. It was complete when it opened today.

When the great European war broke out last summer, it was predicted by some that the attendance of the San Francisco fair would be seriously affected. President Moore, of the Exposition Co. denied this and he declared today that if the war affected the Exposition at all it would be advantageously. Thousands of persons who have been in the habit of visiting Europe every spring or summer will visit San Francisco and California this fall, he believes, so that, instead of being affected adversely the Fair will really be helped. Railroad officials are preparing to accommodate tremendous crowds of tourists and local hotel men assert that their reservation using the coming months bear out the railroad's forecast.

The first big event of the exposition after opening will be the Vanderbilt Cup automobile race which will be staged Mon. (Feb. 22) inside the grounds. The course will be a little less than four miles long. A grandstand has been erected which will accommodate, it is estimated, 30,000 people but twice that many more can view the race from other points of vantage.

Next Saturday (Feb. 27) The Grand Prix race will be staged bringing together the foremost automobile drivers in the world.

CASSIUS SMITH MAY RECOVER

Rush County Man Who Murders
Father-in-Law and Turns Weapon
on Himself—Has Chance

SHOOTING NEAR NEW AGUSTA

Relatives Go to Bedside as Soon as
News Reaches Here—Result of
Family Quarrel

After killing his father-in-law, Marcellus Hollingsworth, at their home near New Augusta, Marion county, last night and attempting to commit suicide, Cassius C. Smith, a Rush county man who left here about four years ago, today had prospects of recovery.

The shooting was reported to be the result of a family quarrel. It took place at the Hollingsworth home where Smith and his wife resided one-half mile north of New Augusta. Hollingsworth, who was fifty-eight years old, died within thirty minutes after he was shot.

Smith turned the revolver on himself soon after he had mortally wounded his father-in-law and shot himself in the right cheek. It was believed that the bullet entered his brain, but this was later disproved.

Smith, who is thirty years old, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Smith, living near what is known as Porter's saw mill on rural route nine a few miles north of the city. He was employed as a conductor on the Indianapolis & Cincinnati traction line a few years before he went to Indianapolis, where he has been working on the Union traction line.

Smith is a brother of Mrs. Frank Cross, living a short distance north of Rushville; of Charles Smith, who lives on the Frank Sample farm north of here; of Miss Laura Smith, of Indianapolis, and of the Misses Mollie and Hazel Smith who are at home.

Frank Cross and Charles Smith went to Indianapolis last night just as soon as news of the shooting reached here. Mr. Smith, the father, is in very poor health and relatives today feared to tell him of the murder.

The shooting is said to be the result of a family feud of more than a year's stand, according to the Indianapolis Star. Smith married Hollingsworth's daughter more than two years ago, and the young couple had lived with Hollingsworth since the death of Mrs. Hollingsworth in 1913.

It is said that Smith and Hollingsworth had quarreled at frequent intervals for several months, and that Mrs. Smith had been dragged into the quarrels by her husband and her father. Smith was in Indianapolis yesterday on business and he returned home about 6 o'clock.

After the shooting he asserted that he heard Hollingsworth quarreling with Mrs. Smith as he entered the house, and he immediately went to the kitchen and shot Hollingsworth.

He fired two bullets. One entered Hollingsworth's left temple and the other struck him in the right eye.

The shooting was done with a revolver, which it is said Smith carried with him part of the time. Mrs. Smith ran from the house and went to the home of neighbors, who called Dr. W. C. MacDonald and Dr. Geo. P. Coble. Dr. E. S. Knox, deputy coroner, investigated the shooting and notified Sheriff George V. Coffin.

Bernard Laughlin is moving from Raleigh to a farm near Mays.

Tanpoh Haymakers 1924 will have work on a candidate Monday evening before the box supper.

SPRING SEEMS TO RUSH SEASON

Showing Winter Unceremoniously
Out But a Very Stubborn Resistance May be Expected.

GREEN SPRIGGS SHOWING UP

Robbins Grow Bold and Sing Out
Loud Without Fear of Getting
Their Names in the Paper.

Persons who, perchance, might be searching for spring today would not have to go far to be rewarded. It was everywhere. The mercury, aided and abetted by the sun, soared up to near sixty degrees. Green sprigs of grass are beginning to peep up through the dead grayish comfort that covers the earth and the robins grew bold and sang out loud because they no longer have fear of having their names in the paper.

The crowd in the city today was augmented by many farmers and their wives. Even higher temperature is predicted for tomorrow, with cloudy skies and possibly a little rain.

It is not with very much regret that most persons see winter depart, even though it may "linger a little in the lap of spring." Last summer time was when there was a longing for the frosty air of the winter season but that longing has disappeared. Rush county has had quite enough cold weather for one winter and the voting is unanimous for spring to enter, although it is generally agreed that winter will not retreat without putting up a stubborn resistance—and when the backward movement does finally begin, the announcement is expected that it was for "strategical purposes."

Spring activities are already manifesting themselves. One of the most conclusive proofs that spring is soon to come is the display of seeds which is found at many of the stores. The time of the year is close at hand when attention will be given to arranging for the gardens.

GRAND JURY DOES NOT INDICT BROWN

Returns Ignoramus Against Accused
Man After Investigation of Alleged Theft of $180.

EVIDENCE CIRCUMSTANTIAL

The grand jury failed to indict Omer Brown, held on a grand larceny charge in connection with the mysterious disappearance of $180 belonging to Martin Kelley, a local blacksmith, and he was released from jail this morning. The affidavit on which Brown was held in jail was dismissed by Prosecutor Stevens when the grand jury failed to find enough evidence against Brown to warrant an indictment.

The evidence against Brown was entirely circumstantial and there was no direct evidence that the money he spent freely was that belonging to Kelley. The grand jury rather than indict him on this kind of evidence with no show of obtaining a conviction voted to return an ignoramus in the case.

No more indictments were returned by the grand jury and adjournment was taken. No time was set for the next meeting and the jury will be held subject to call.

ESTATE GIVEN $1,000 VERDICT

Jury Holds Signature Assigning Insurance Policy to L. C. Lam-
bert Not Milton Wagner's

LAMBERT DECLARED IT WAS

Judgment Similar to That in Case of Sexton Estate Administrator
vs. William Frame.

The jury hearing the case of James V. Young, administrator of the estate of the late Milton Wagner against Louis C. Lambert, returned a verdict for the plaintiff awarding Mr. Young judgment for $1,000, the amount of the insurance policy involved in the case.

The jury was out a little over one hour and the finding was a surprise to most of those interested in the case as it was not generally believed that judgment would be for this large sum. Lambert alleged that Wagner, when he died was indebted to him and that he held the assignment to the life insurance policy. The assignment was introduced in evidence.

The plaintiff maintained the signature to the assignment turning the policy over to Lambert was not that of the late Mr. Wagner and this contention was sustained by the jury in making the finding as one of the interrogatories submitted contained this question and the jury answered that Wagner did not sign the assignment.

The evidence in the case was completed yesterday afternoon and the closing argument was made this morning. The case went to the jury about eleven o'clock. Several witnesses testified that the signature to the assignment, which involved the turning of the insurance policy over to Lambert, was not that of Wagner's, while Lambert, Harry McMillin and Charles Newkirk testified that Wagner did sign the paper.

This is the second case this week in which signatures have been involved and in both instances the findings have been that the signatures were not those of the person alleged to have made them. The first case was that of the Gates Sexton estate against William Frame on a note. The court held that the signature to the note was not that of Mr. Frame and that the plaintiff was not entitled to recover. In the case decided today the jury virtually decided that the signature was that of someone else rather than the late Mr. Wagner.

He had been employed by Mr. Johnson for about two years and previous to this had worked on various farms near this city. He was well known here. Mr. Dyke is survived by six brothers and three sisters. The funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence.

SENATE PASSES SUFFRAGE BILL

Upper Branch of Legislature Springs
Surprise by Making it Party
Measure After Caucus.

JUST 3 VOTES AGAINST IT

If It Becomes Law, Women May
Vote For All Officials Not Created by Constitution.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 19.—The Indiana senate today passed, 37 to 3 the limited woman's suffrage measure giving women the right to vote for all offices not mentioned in the state constitution. The bill was made a Democratic party measure and the action was taken after a party caucus.

The bill goes to the house where it probably will be passed. Governor Ralston has said that he will sign the bill.

Those voting against the bill were Senators Kinder and Roser, Republicans, and Zearing, Democrat.

Prior to the caucus action several Democratic leaders had expressed doubt whether the supreme court would hold the law constitutional. Today nothing was said on that point when the bill came up.

The Maston bill which is modeled after the Illinois law, would give women the right to vote for presidential electors, judges of the appellate court, chief of the bureau of statistics, reporter of the supreme court, attorney general, judges of superior, criminal, probate and juvenile courts, county councils, township trustees, township advisory boards, township assessors, officers of cities and towns, officers of the school boards elected by the people, and all other offices not provided for in the constitution of Indiana, and those offices which have been or may be created by the legislature. It would give women the right to vote on all questions submitted to the voters except constitutional amendment. It would give them the right to vote in local option elections.

The bill has been promoted by the Legislative council of Indiana women. It became known that the organization forces decided at the last moment in party caucuses to take this action after the house by unanimous Democratic vote passed the state-wide primary measure which had been defeated in the senate. A plan earlier formulated to tack to the suffrage bill a referendum clause was abandoned.

The action today was beyond the hopes entertained by the most ardent suffragist when the session opened. Such a bill was not thought of. The plan to introduce the bill was announced exclusively by United Press newspapers January 25.

"The feeling in the caucus was that we should do something to get the support of the progressive element," said a Democrat.

"The recent adoption by the senate of the Stotsenberg suffrage amendment which retained the present provision limiting suffrage to male voters does not effect the bill passed today. The Stotsenberg amendment applies only to constitutional office and the bill passed today applies only to offices not mentioned in the constitution.

W. A. Woolen, who has been seriously ill at his home in North Harrison street, is slowly improving.

A son has been born to the wife of Peter Demmer in Connorsville. Mr. and Mrs. Demmer were formerly residents of this city.

Government Officials Consider United States More Involved in International Difficulties

THREE NOTES ARE RECEIVED

England Announces Wilhelmina
Placed in Prize Court—Reply to
Flag Zone Order

Washington, Feb. 20.—The state department today received the official text of the German war zone reply, the English flag zone reply and the English provision placing the steamer Wilhelmina in prize court.

Government officials today considered America deeper than ever in the tangle of international difficulties.

The government intends to stand firm in insisting that Germany not harm American commerce or lives in the death zone around the British Isles, according to official intimation today. The official view was that the nation can persevere no other course than to insist on its rights.

One of the highest government officials admitted real danger lies in the fact that the United States may become involved in the argument between the two nations.

The Cabinet discussed with the president yesterday afternoon the dangers to American vessels and commerce growing out of the reiterated determination of the German government to wage a warfare of submarines and mines on enemy vessels, disclaiming all responsibility for what might happen to neutral vessels, venturing into the new sea zones of war.

Canvass of Cabinet officers later disclosed that the administration regarded the developments of the last few days as of grave importance. Members of the cabinet declined to predict what would be the course of the United States.

Some pointed out that in every serious situation in international affairs much discretion was vested in the President and that his action would necessarily be guided by the

William Ricketts, Formerly of This County, Arrested Near Harts-
ville and Returned Here.

COMPROMISE SEEMS LIKELY

William Ricketts, formerly of this county, was arrested yesterday in Bartholomew county and brought here today by Mathew T. Shaw, sheriff of that county, to face a charge of wife desertion filed by his wife, May Ricketts. He was arrested on an affidavit. When arraigned before Judge Sparks the affidavit was found to be faulty in that no date was mentioned for the alleged offense. Judge Sparks sustained the motion to quash on this grounds and another affidavit was filed.

An effort was being made this afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Ricketts to compromise the case and it was expected that the case would be dropped. Ricketts was arrested near Hartsville. They formerly lived in North Vernon and he is alleged to have deserted her while they were residents there.

GREAT FAIR IS OPENED TODAY

Panama-Pacific Exposition Starts
Without Formal Ceremonies Other

(By United Press.)

San Francisco, Feb. 20.—The greatest of world fairs, the Panama-Pacific exposition, opened today, without formal ceremonies other than a vast pageant of San Franciscans to the grounds this morning. Thousands of visitors saw the pageant.

All San Francisco was astir by 7 a. m. today and with the greatest outpouring of people in the city's history the international exposition was opened. Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, was the official representative of President Wilson. The president himself gave the sword for throwing open the gates. His voice was carried over a 3,000 mile telephone circuit.

The Panama-Pacific International Exposition represents an expenditure of $50,000,000. The critical judgment of experts pronounced it's eleven main exhibit buildings, its five courts, 250 pieces of statuary, mural paintings and lighting effects one of the most magnificent ensembles of buildings and grounds ever achieved.

An enormous part of the outlay is represented in the "zone," the amusement street of the Fair.

The exhibit palaces include a total area of 2,063,184 square feet. Sixty thousand exhibitors will fill this space the promoters of the Fair declaring that the exhibits will cover the arts, industries and resources of the entire world summarize the achievements of human history.

Not only will the Exposition be remarkable in its exhibits showing but in its special events, congresses and conventions, spectacles and pageants. The Department of congresses has listed between 400 and 500 national and international organizations which will hold their meetings or conventions here. It is estimated that an average of six conventions will be held every day during the life of the exposition which will last until December 4.

To house these meetings the city and exposition management have recently completed construction of a permanent auditorium downtown, which cost $2,000,000 inside the grounds another auditorium has been erected, and Leland Stanford University at Palo Alto and the University of California at Berkeley have thrown open their auditoriums.

For the past month the general public has been excluded from the

The lesson concealed in this bit of doggerel is this: Newspaper advertising not only makes people think—but it makes them think of your product, your store, your service. It makes your name or trade mark come to mind when there is a want to be supplied.

Newspaper advertising is a mighty weapon against dull times.

and flower beds in the city and the sowing of fields on the farm. Practically all the dealers who handle seeds have already received their supplies and have given them a prominent place in their stores. With the farmers spring is the beginning of the busy season and as soon as the weather is favorable for plowing, work on the farm will continue without interruption until late fall.

Early spring is the annual clean up time. Whether or not a general "clean-up" day is observed here this year the great majority of lawns, back yards and alleys will be given attention. Each winter a large amount of trash and rubbish accumulates, despite the care of the average housewife and must be hauled away to keep the premises in a first-class condition. Last year the general clean-up campaign was very successful and many loads of trash and ashes were hauled away by the city teams.

Any story concerning approach of spring would not be complete without mention of the popular game of marbles which is indulged in at this time of the year. Small boys are seen walking home from school with their pocket bulging out with the "profits" of the day, and others who have been less successful wondering how they are going to get another start for tomorrow. Whether or not it is gambling to play "keeps" that game is conceded to be the most popular. The tell tale circles on the concrete sidewalks and streets show where the lads have been playing and indicate the popularity of the game. Dealers report that there is a good demand for marbles of all sizes and kinds and that the youth of Rushville is spending his money for them.

Spring like any other new season means additional work for the merchants as the winter stocks of goods must be replaced with those that are seasonable. Already spring lines are being displayed in the show windows and there are many demands for the newest styles. In a few days the merchants expect the spring trade to start in earnest, especially if the weather is at all favorable. Dealers in all lines are receiving their new goods and will soon have their stocks complete.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggy, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic: you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

$3000.00 FIRE PREVENTED

Read This Letter:

"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap jet length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect.

Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn, house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

FALSEHOODS ARE CHARGED

Germany and Austria Charged With Making Untrue Statements.

(By United Press.)

Petrograd, Feb. 20.—The Russian general staff flatly accused the German and Austrian war offices of making false claims in their reports of sweeping victories and thousands of prisoners taken during the last ten days. The contrary was said to have been the case. While it was admitted that retreats had taken place from Bukovina and from east Prussia, it is asserted that there were orders for strategic reasons and that they were perfectly conducted and that the numerical losses were small.

In attempting to pass the buggy of Rufus Moore, near Clarksburg yesterday, the automobile driven by George Alexander, of this city, hit the buggy turning it over but the occupant escaped injury. In the machine with Alexander were Pearl Wamsley and Clarence Carney.

circumstances of each case if any attacks on American vessels occurred.

In the informal discussion of the German war zone reply, as published in the newspapers, members of the cabinet indicated that they were impressed by different aspects of the case. Some took the view that while the situation was serious, there was an indication in the German note of a willingness to negotiate and discuss the subject further, which might, perhaps, postpone the active enforcement of the proclamation sufficiently long to permit an understanding to be reached about the safety of neutral vessels and their identification on the high seas.

The fact that Germany has emphasized in the reply the orders to its navy to use discretion and care when approaching ships flying neutral flags was viewed as indicating that the maximum of vigilance probably would be exercised by the commanders of submarines to distinguish between enemy and neutral vessels. On the other hand, however the portion of the note in which Germany disclaimed all responsibility for what might happen to neutral ships either by submarine torpedoes or mines produced a feeling of apprehension among some high officials that a critical point might be precipitated in the relations between the United States and Germany.

Opinion varied as to what steps would be taken by the United States when the text of the German reply is officially received. Some contended that inasmuch as the United States had informed Germany that the latter would be held "to a strict accountability" for any attacks on American vessels and lives, the interests of the American government might be conserved now by standing unalterably on that warning and awaiting developments.

Women Bending Every Effort to Bring Pressure to Bear in Favor of Their Suffrage Bill.

PETITION BEING SENT IN

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 20.—Women suffragists all over the state are bending every effort to show the members of the legislature that the people of the state favor the Maston-Rule suffrage bill which is now before both houses of the legislature. The bill has passed second reading in the house and is in the hands of the senate committee.

The women are not at this time trying to have the bills advanced, but are sending out telegrams and letters into every county requesting friends of the cause to ask their senators and representatives to vote for the bill. The women also are asking for pledges from the legislators.

To Bluffton women belong the distinction of having sent in the first letter. Senator Rinear of Wells, Blackford and Grant introduced a resolution sent him by members of the Bluffton clubs. It was read in the senate.

Put on the Soft Pedal

It is time for the American laymen to put on the soft pedal, and let the president do the talking.

There is grave concern lest the United States become involved in the European war.

But it must not be—if mortal man and honorable means can prevent.

England seems determined to starve out Germany, even to the depriving of women and children of the necessary food to sustain life.

This may be in accordance with the rules of warfare, but it is not in accord with the laws of humanity. Helpless women and children!

Germany, in retaliation, says merchant ships must not enter English waters, and warns neutral countries that their vessels are in danger of being sunk by Teutonic submarines. Germany, apparently, would also starve England—including its innocent women and children!

This, too, may be considered a justifiable act of war, but the element of humanity is lacking—quite dead.

The United States is a neutral country, favoring neither side to the controversy, and with food in plenty for the hungry in all lands.

British merchant ships are using the American flag in an effort to escape the hostile craft of the enemy.

The kaiser instructs his submarine commanders to sink merchant vessels approaching the English coast, and warns America that its ships of commerce are in danger of being destroyed.

If either country, in pursuance of its announced policy, destroys an American ship sailing under the American flag than that act becomes one of war against the United States or of piracy on the high seas.

And therein lies the extreme gravity of the situation.

President Wilson and his advisors are straining every nerve in an effort to avoid the danger of a clash, and the people of this country can best assist them by refraining from partisan discussions of the war, and by retaining their native coolness and calmness in the face of danger. Hot headed denunciations and vitriolic discussions will only serve to aggravate an already delicate situation.

Let Europe fight its own battles. Our business is to attend strictly to our own affairs—and to furnish food for the starving millions when the inevitable time is at hand.

The president is speaking softly—but to the point—and he should not be embarrassed by the flames of racial strife.

Put on the soft pedal, brother—the soft pedal.

PEACE FORCES TO PLEAD WAR'S END

Emergency Federation Will Meet in Chicago in Effort to Secure Cessation of Hostilities.

QUESTIONS TO BE SOLVED

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Feb. 20.—To secure a cessation of hostilities, to ensure such terms of settlement as will prevent this war from being put the prelude to new wars, and to place the future peace of the world upon sounder foundations—these are the far reaching purposes of the Emergency Federation of Peace Forces, which will hold a gathering in Chicago on February 27 and 28.

In a call for this meeting, sent to all parts of the country, the following questions are asked:

What can America do to stop the war?

What shall be the terms of Peace?

How shall a lasting peace be secured?

It is an endeavor to solve these questions, that the meeting which is to be a national congress of all persons interested in securing peace, and not only for members of the Emergency Federation alone, has been called. Nationally known speakers will address the gatherings.

The Emergency Federation of Peace Forces was organized in Chicago on Dec. 19, 1914. Among its sponsors are: James Adams, chairman of executive committee; Louise F. Lochner, secretary; Mrs. Bertram W. Sippy, treasurer; Margaret Haley, Florence Holbrook, John C. Kennedy, Graham Taylor, Martin D. Hardin, Jenkin Lloyd Jones, Mrs. Martin D. Schulze, Carl D. Thompson, Peter J. O'Callaghan, Raymond Robbins and Joseph Stolz.

BACHELORS AND CATS TO BE TAXED

Both Will Stand in Jeopardy in New Jersey if Two Bills Pending
Become Laws

PROVIDES FOR $50 ANNUALLY

(By United Press.)
Trenton, Feb. 20.—Bachelors and cats will stand in jeopardy if two bills pending in the present Legislature should receive favorable action by the solons. The former will be affected in a financial way, and the felines face extinction as a species in very short order if the measure is placed upon the statute books of New Jersey.

Assemblyman Ostron, Democrat, introduced the bachelor bill, which provides that all unmarried males over the age of 30 years shall pay an annual tax of $50, provided however, that they are earning at least $50 a week.

A Republican, O. H. Hammond, is responsible for the contemplated war on the cats.

He has put in a bill which calls for licensing at a $1 a head. The sponsor of the proposed law wants to eliminate the hundreds of stray animals that prey upon young game such as rabbits and birds.

Assemblyman Singer would establish a State Board of Barbers to

Don't Pass Up the Comforts and Pleasures of Life

You have seen the museum mummy—take a hunch from him. He hasn't had any pleasure for over 5,000 years. He had his opportunity—did he get his share? Do you? Buy what you need and make life a pleasure to yourself and family. There will come a time when you can't. Ask the mummy, he knew once—did he enjoy life to the full extent as it was intended for him to do? He won't answer—it's up to you. For instance, if you need a New Storm Buggy or any other kind of a buggy, why don't you buy it and buy it now? We have plenty of them and we want to sell them. We have every style that was ever made, all colors of paint, all kinds of combinations. The man that deprives himself of all these comforts of life may leave a bigger tombstone to mark the hole he is finally forced to crawl into but he is a mummy all the years of his life. So get busy, buy yourself a buggy, buy the boy a buggy and get what pleasure you can out of life now. Next year may be too late. Don't forget our Opening on March 12-13. Come in and have a good time with us and don't forget to buy what you need to make life worth while. You will be a mummy soon enough.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Baci hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble. The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system. When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

LITTLE CLUBS TO DIG UP MONEY

State Boxing Commission Announces That Hereafter They Will all Look Alike to Them

PUTS CRIMP IN SMALL BOYS

Two Bouts at Present in Sight for Freddie Welsh—Takes on Ritchie March 11

BY HAL SHERIDAN (Written for United Press.)

New York, Feb. 20.—Managers of the half hundred boxing clubs which have sprung up on the East Side and in Harlem were sore today. For the past year they have been holding their minor exhibitions two or three nights a week, and some of the promoters have blossomed forth in tailored togs where before a sweater and a pair of pants served all purposes. They made a few hundred dollars each season and had learned to spend it.

But now there is woe in their camps. The State Boxing commission has been collecting five percent of the gross receipts of every Gotham scrap of any importance, but the little fellows were overlooked. But the state athletic commission, the other day, announced it is going after the little clubs too, and that they will have to pay the tax arrears and all, if the receipts of previous bouts can be found, or close up.

"No more delay; we need the money," it is the commission's slogan.

There are two bouts in prospect for Freddie Welsh in the near future. Joe Shugrue, won the right to meet the lightweight champ. It is a little scrap by outpointing him in ten rounds at the Madison Square Garden, and efforts are being made to link the pair again as soon as possible. Whether Joe and the Britisher will get together before or after Welsh meets Willie Ritchie here March 11, remains to be seen. Perhaps it won't be necessary for Shugrue to meet Freddie at all, for Ritchie bugs say he'll regain his title, if he does it'll be the two Americans for it.

EXHIBITION AGAIN TONIGHT

"Wizard" Shaw Will Repeat at Elks Club This Evening

Lew Shaw, known as "Wizard" Shaw, who appeared at the Elks club last night, will play there again tonight. He will play one hundred or no count at billiards and fifteen balls or no count at pool against the best players of the Elks or in the city. The games will commence at 9:30 o'clock. "Wizard" Shaw made the balls do everything but talk last night. He played a three-ball billiard game of two hundred points, his first run in which was 95 in the third inning. In the fifth inning he got the balls together again and ran the remaining 105. He made one run of 115 at pool and wound up his exhibition by showing how fourteen balls could be made at one stroke.

RUSHVILLE WINS IN FINAL PERIOD

Fairview Put up Good Game But Locals Succeed in Pulling Out Ahead, 29 to 13.

CONNERSVILLE IS NEXT

The Rushville high school team added another victory to the long list last night when the Fairview team was defeated 29 to 13. The game the first half was very close and ended with the locals in the lead 11 to 9. In the last half Rushville gradually pulled away and proceeded to pile up the score.

Rushville was handicapped in the first half by using the ball brought here by Fairview. For some reason the ball appeared "dead" and it was impossible for the local forwards to dribble it and this slowed the team down considerably. The ball was changed in last half and Rushville walked away with the game. This is the first game this season that Fairview has lost and the game from a Rushville standpoint was no more than a practice contest.

The Connersville team will be the attraction here next Wednesday night and the locals are out for revenge and expect to slip over a big win.

GERMAN CLAIMS CONTRADICTED

French Say That Assertions Concerning Sweeping Victories Are Without Foundation.

THE RETREAT IS ADMITTED

(By United Press.)

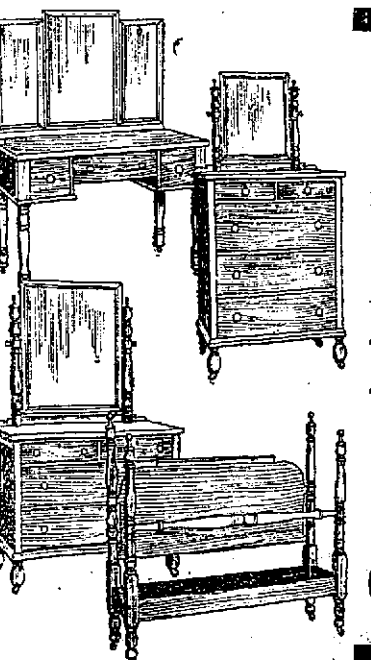

Paris, Feb. 20.—Flat contradiction of the German claims of success in the north in the Argonne and in the Champagne districts came today from the war office. Reviewing the operations of the last ten days, it was stated that everywhere the developments have favored the allies. The German claims of sweeping victories are made deliberately and with the expectation that they will aid in influencing the Italian parliament now in session to continue the policy of neutrality, it is charged.

The weather conditions all along the battle line have been abominable but the allies have continued to make notable gains. Part of this is due to the superiority of the French artillery which is becoming more effective as the German artillery loses its power, it was stated.

QUESTION NOW UP TO THE SENATE

Recognized Leader of Upper Body
Says Today That it Will Pass
State-Wide Primary Bill.

OTHERS DIFFER WITH HIM

House Passes Measure Late Friday,
65 to 30, Evidently to Place
Higher-Body "In Hole."

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 20.—That John R. Jones state-wide primary bill will pass the senate if the recognized leader of the senate holds to the view and intention that he held today.

"The house will not play football with me any longer. I'll see that this primary bill passes the senate," he said.

When the senate Democrats went into their conference at 9:30 this morning it was generally understood that the action of the house yesterday in passing the Jones primary bill 65 to 30 would be the main subject discussed. What decision the majority would make was a debatable question, according to many of the Democrats.

Democrats who had not heard the leader's remark were "up in the air" over the action of the house. There was a feeling that the house Democrats were "passing the buck," and quite a number of senate members were free in saying so. With the senate having assumed the responsibility of killing direct primary measures, the house felt it could go ahead, live up to the letter of the primary pledge in the platform and leave it to the senate to use the axe, as one member expressed it.

The fact that the house Democrats voted unanimously for the primary and that all the leaders without exception said they voted thus because of the platform pledge, made it more difficult for the majority in the senate to kill the Jones bill, it was believed.

When asked what he thought the senate would do, Senator VanAken, one of the leaders, said:

"We'll do the same thing to the Jones bill we did to the Rinear bill."

"Are you sure," he was asked.

"No, I'm not sure of anything except death and taxes," he said.

Senator Clarke, a moving spirit among the senate Democrats said:

"To be frank with you, my judgment is that the Jones bill will not pass the senate."

To pass the Jones bill, the senate majority will have to work without the aid of the senate Republicans. This was learned today on good authority. When the Rinear bill was killed, six of the seven Republican senators voted against the motion killing the bill, but they did this to force it to third reading. They will, it is said, vote nearly as a unit against the Jones bill under the theory that the primary is a Democratic platform measure, and if it becomes a law the Democrats should be responsible for it.

Should these six votes be lost it would be hard to overcome by the primary friends unless the leaders of the party swung into line behind the bill. Senator Neal has said that he voted with the majority to kill the Rinear bill, but that because of hoarseness his voice was not heard. Senator Jackson was not present, but has said he would have voted to kill the Rinear bill.

The vote against the Rinear bill was 23, with 21 for it. Add the votes of Neal and Jackson and the six Republicans, and the bill would be defeated unless the organization Democrats who have stood for a referendum should get behind the bill.

Exposition grounds while the last of the buildings were being finished and the exhibits were being put into place. When the gates were thrown open today, the big fair was virtually complete. All of the larger buildings were finished and in permanent shape and only a few of the smaller buildings and concessions remained to be completed.

Of the 20 foreign buildings within the grounds all were finished by Jan. 1 excepting the pavilions of France, Italy, Siam, Portugal and Panama. The French building, a reproduction of the Palace of the Legion of Honor, was the last of the foreign buildings to start construction and it will be finished in a very few days. The following is a partial record of two years work the result of which is the big exposition of today.

San Francisco won the government's support for its exposition against determined opposition by southern congressmen who wanted to center the federal appropriation on a proposed exposition in New Orleans. The work of preparing for the exposition, which had been suspended pending this decision, then went forward with renewed energy. Ground was broken Jan. 1, 1913, on a stretch of sand covered with debris and old structures. More than 70 acres were reclaimed from San Francisco Bay. Six hundred and thirty acres of marsh land were converted into a veritable garden. Under the direction of the department of landscape gardening the former arid waste was made to bloom until today, when the fair opened, until flowers were blossoming everywhere on the grounds.

The "zone" of the Exposition is to this fair what the midway "Pianissimo" was to Chicago and "The Pike" to St. Louis, having attracted amusement promoters from all parts of the United States and Europe. It was complete when it opened today.

When the great European war broke out last summer, it was predicted by some that the attendance of the San Francisco fair would be seriously affected. President Moore, of the Exposition Co., denied this and he declared today that if the war affected the Exposition at all it would be advantageously. Thousands of persons who have been in the habit of visiting Europe every spring or summer will visit San Francisco and California this fall, he believes, so that, instead of being affected adversely the fair will really be helped. Railroad officials are preparing to accommodate tremendous crowds of tourists and local hotel men assert that their reservation during the coming months hear out the railroad's forecast.

The first big event of the exposition after opening will be the Vanderbilt Cup automobile race which will be staged Mon. (Feb. 22) inside the grounds. The course will be a little less than four miles long. A grandstand has been erected which will accommodate, it is estimated, 30,000 people but twice that many more can view the race from other points of vantage.

Next Saturday (Feb. 27) The Grand Prix race will be staged bringing together the foremost automobile drivers in the world.
